

The following criteria will be used to evaluate the retelling of the story in the classroom:

Content & Comprehension:

The retelling is clear, complete, and fully captures the essence of the story. All major plot points, characters, and themes are included.

Structure & Organization:

The retelling is logically organized, with a clear beginning, middle, and end. Transitions between ideas are smooth and effective.

Creativity & Engagement:

The language is clear, fluent, and effective. The reteller uses varied vocabulary and sentence structures to express ideas well.

Language Use & Expression:

The language is clear, fluent, and effective. The reteller uses varied vocabulary and sentence structures to express ideas well.

Pronunciation & Fluency:

Pronunciation is clear, and speech is fluid, with natural pacing and emphasis. The reteller speaks confidently and smoothly.

The moral of the story

The moral of the story is clearly stated and communicated to the audience.