

Grammar Worksheet 2 - Types of Sentences

Name: Omar Mufhi

Statement, Question or Exclamation

| A statement sentence tells about something.  | A question sentence asks something.   | An exclamation sentence shows strong feeling.   |
|--|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>It ends with a </li> </ul> Example:  My name is Ben. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>It ends with a </li> </ul> Example:  How are you? | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>It ends with an </li> </ul> Example:  Yes, we won the game! |

A) Read the following sentences below and write (S), (Q) or (E).

1) Can you see the star?  2) Wow, that was fun!  3) I have two brothers.  4) The dog ate a bone.  5) Oh, that is a huge whale!  6) Are you happy?  S  Statement sentenceQ  Question sentenceE  Exclamation sentence

B) Put these words in the correct order to make meaningful sentences. Begin and end each sentence correctly.

1) your when birthday is

When is your birthday?

2) went the park to tom

Tom went to the park.

3) my pencil no is broken oh

Oh no, my pencil is broken!

4) found toy my I the bed under

I found my toy under the bed.

C) Use the pictures below to complete the sentences.

oh no, her leg is broken!

Hooray, he won the race!

D) Add the missing capital letters and the correct ending marks.

1. Who is your best friend?

Who.

2. i have to clean my room.

I

3. wow, what a beautiful dress!

Wow

4. grandpa drinks coffee every morning.

Grandpa

5. did you finish your work?

Did

How to wash your hands

You will need:

Water

Soap

Towel

What to do:

First, turn on the tap.

Second, wet your hands under the tap.

Third, put some soap on your hands.

Then, rub your hands together.

Next, rinse your hands.

After that, turn off the tap.

Finally, dry your hands with a towel.