

Worksheet (14)

Punctuation- Commas

Date: _____

A. Circle the correct answer from the choices given.

1) My father was born on _____.

a. Monday, January 18th, 1954.

b. Monday January 18th, 1954.

c. Monday January, 18th, 1954.

2) I live in _____.

a) London, England.

b) , London, England.

c. London England

• My sister _____ is in high school.

a. , Martha,

b. Martha,

c. , Martha

- _____ I got your email.

a. Yes,

b. Yes

- I hope you can make it to my party _____.

a. Mary,

b. , Mary,

c. , Mary

B. Add commas where needed.

1. Alex painted the fence white, blue and green.
2. The kind nurse, Leen, cares for the sick, injured and disabled.
3. No, I don't want to go with Mark.
4. Alice said, "They keep picking on me Rudy."
5. Yes, I love to go to the beach with my family.
6. He said, "I'm not going to lose my game today."
7. I wanted to buy some balloons, a cake and some ice cream for the party.

8. My mother was born on August 25, 1980 in Florence, Italy.

C. Use your favorite color to correct the mistakes in the sentences below by adding the comma into its correct place.

1. By evening, we have become really hungry.

2. I was born on July, 30, 1995.

3. To win the game in basketball, you need to work as a team.

4. After the race, John, was exhausted.

5. However, it might be best, to wait until next week.

6. They are going, to Alaska on July 2, 2023.

7. I still have, to buy a gift, pack the suitcases and arrange for someone to water the, plants.

8. The professor, remarked, "How attentive you have been today, Mario!"

9. The last time, I traveled overseas, my departure date was May, 11, 2017.

10. Jill, who, is my sister, shut, the door.

