

CHAPTER

1

Things Around Us

Activity 1A What's in My Classroom?

Skills:

Learn to sort and classify things through observations, create tables and diagrams to show observations

- 1 Walk around your classroom.
- 2 Look for different objects.
- 3 Write the names of the objects in the correct groups below.

Living things	Things that were once alive	Things that have never lived
students teacher	fruit vegetable	whiteboard panel windows trash bin curtains

- 4 Colour the box with the correct answer to complete the sentence.

a

The wall clock is _____.

a living thing because its hands move

something that has never lived because its different parts are not alive

something that was once alive because it looks old

b

The banana and apple are _____.

living things because they come from trees

things that have never lived because they are no longer parts of a living thing

things that were once alive because they used to be part of a living thing