

Student's Book p.11

Check Your Learning

What would happen if we did not have any bones in our body?

- We would not have a body shape.
- We would not be able to move or stand up straight.
- Our important body parts would not be protected.