

Activity Book p. 2

5 Models do not fully represent the real world. What are two ways in which the bones in your model are different from real bones?

1. the model could be made from different material

2. could be smaller in size (not the actual size)