

1. Circle the two things being compared in each sentence.

a. Her smile was as bright as the sun.

Answer: Her smile was as bright as the sun.

b. The wind howled like a wolf in the night.

c. His voice was as smooth as silk.

d. The classroom was as noisy as a beehive.

e. She danced like a graceful swan.

f. The car roared like a lion.

g. His hands were as cold as ice.

2. Create a sentence for each of the following similes.

a. as smooth as silk The scarf felt as smooth as silk against her cheek.

b. as light as a feather The newborn kitten was as light as a feather in her hands

c. as tall as a giraffe My big brother stood as tall as a giraffe in the court.

d. as slow as a snail The old bus moved as slow as a snail through traffic.

e. as busy as a bee Mom was busy as a bee preparing dinner for everyone.

3. Look closely at each picture and then write a sentence containing a simile.

a.

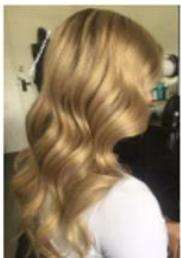

Even though the thunder roared and lighting flashed through the window, he slept like a log.

b.

She blew into her hands because the air felt as cold as ice on her skin.

c.

Her hair shone in the sunlight like strands of golden silk.

Her hair is as soft as silk.

d.

His heart was as big as an ocean

e.

He dashed across the playground like a cheetah chasing its prey.

4. Create your own similes.

- a. The pillow is as soft as cotton.
- b. The boy tiptoed as quiet as a mouse through the kitchen.
- c. She was as brave as a lion during her speech.

Metaphor

1. Circle the two things being compared in each sentence.

- a. Time is a thief.
- b. My brain is a sponge.
- c. His temper was a volcano.
- d. They are night owls.
- e. The kids were monkeys on the jungle gym.
- f. The snow was a blanket covering the ground.
- g. Their home was a prison.
- h. Your room has mountains of clothes everywhere.

2. Complete the metaphor.

a glowing lantern	a maze of towering trees
a soft melody	sparkling sapphires

- a. Her eyes were sparkling sapphires.
- b. The moon was a glowing lantern.
- c. His voice was a soft melody.
- d. The forest was a maze of towering trees.

3. Rewrite this simile into a metaphor.

- a. She was as brave as a lion. She was a lion.
- b. His ideas flew like rockets. His ideas were rockets.
- c. Her laugh was like music. Her laugh was music.
- d. The snow lay like a blanket. The snow was a blanket.
- e. The test was as easy as pie. The test was a pie.

Q4)

- a. 1. My school day is a race.
2. My life is a winding road.
3. Growing up is climbing a mountain.
4. My week is a rollercoaster ride.

b. 1. My excitement is a firework.

2. My sadness is a rainy cloud.
3. My anger is a volcano ready to explode.
4. My joy is a bouncing puppy.
5. My nervousness is a buzzing bee trapped in a jar.

c. 1. Summer is a popsicle melting in the sun.
Summer is a glowing campfire at night.
Summer is a cozy blanket.

2. Winter is an ice palace made of quiet.
3. Spring is a perfume bottle bursting with flowers.
Spring is a green carpet rolling over the Earth.
Spring is a garden waking from a deep sleep.
4. Autumn is a swirling leaf fan.
Autumn is a symphony of rustling leaves.
Autumn is a pumpkin smiling in the sun.

d. 1. My drawing is a magic wand.
2. My reading is a treasure map.
3. My singing is a bird's morning song.
4. My cooking is a scientist's experiment.

e. 1. Homework is a steep hill.
2. Waking up early is lifting a boulder.
3. Math is a maze with no map.

f 1. Playing football is flying like the wind.
2. Reading books is diving into another world.
3. Dancing is writing poems with my feet.

Personification

1. Read the sentence and circle the object or idea that is being personified. Underline the human action or feeling given to it.

- The wind howled through the night.
- The sun yawned over the mountains.
- The flowers danced in the breeze.
- My alarm clock yelled at me.

2. Complete each sentence by adding a human action.

- The leaves danced / whispered in the wind.
- The rain tapped/knocked on the roof.
- The river rushed / giggled past the rocks.
- The computer groaned/ cried for a break when I clicked too much.
- The playground cheered with excitement.
- The shadows tiptoed / danced along the wall.

3. a. The tree stood proudly, stretching toward the sky.
The tree touched the sky.

b. The storm screamed across the sky.
The storm banged on the windows.

c. The house groaned with every step.
The house whispered stories from the past.

d. The cake called out to me with its sweet scent.
The cake begged me to eat it.

Mixed questions

1. Write on the lines whether each sentence is a simile or a metaphor.

a. George was as fast as the lightning when he was at the race. Simile

b. My bag is as light as a feather. Simile

c. My brother was a real bear when he woke up. Metaphor

d. Cindy is a fish when she swims. Metaphor

e. Tom is like a computer when he does his math. Simile

f. Tom is a human calculator. Metaphor

g. The music was as soothing as rain. Simile

h. The grass is a green carpet for the golfers. Metaphor

i. The inside of the car was a refrigerator. Metaphor

j. During the assessment, we were as quiet as mice. Simile

k. They have the heart of a lion. Metaphor

2. Write on each line whether the sentence contains a simile, metaphor, or personification.

a. The leaves fell like rain. _____ Simile

b. The glasses danced on the shelf during the earthquake.

_____ Personification

c. The rusty door hinge screamed every time the door opened.

_____ Personification

d. The wind was like a piercing arrow. _____ Simile

e. The train screamed down the tracks. _____ Personification

f. Fruit is fuel for a healthy body. _____ Metaphor

g. Water is the hammer that erodes the rocks. _____ Metaphor

h. He is like a rocket on his bike. _____ Simile

i. The new neighbor is as curious as a cat; nothing escapes her attention.
_____ Simile

j. The afternoon is so bright that the sun would have to wear sunglasses.
_____ Personification

Q3. What do the following sentences mean?

They are brave.

a. They have the heart of a lion. _____

He is very fast.

b. He is like a rocket on his bike. _____

The train made a loud noise.

c. The train screamed down the tracks. _____

4. Write an example of:

Her smile was as bright as the sun.

a. a simile _____

b. a metaphor _____ The stars were diamonds in the sky.

c. a personification _____ The wind whispered through the trees.