

1. Tick (✓) the correct box beside each sentence.

	True	False
All things can be grouped as living things, things that are not alive or plants.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
A plant is not a living thing because it cannot move from one place to another.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
A leaf that has fallen to the ground is an example of a thing that once lived.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Living things grow, move, need nutrition and can have young.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

2. Write each thing in the correct group.

cup

dead insect

flour

rotten log

water

Things that have never lived	Things that were once alive
cup	flour
	dead insect
water	rotten log

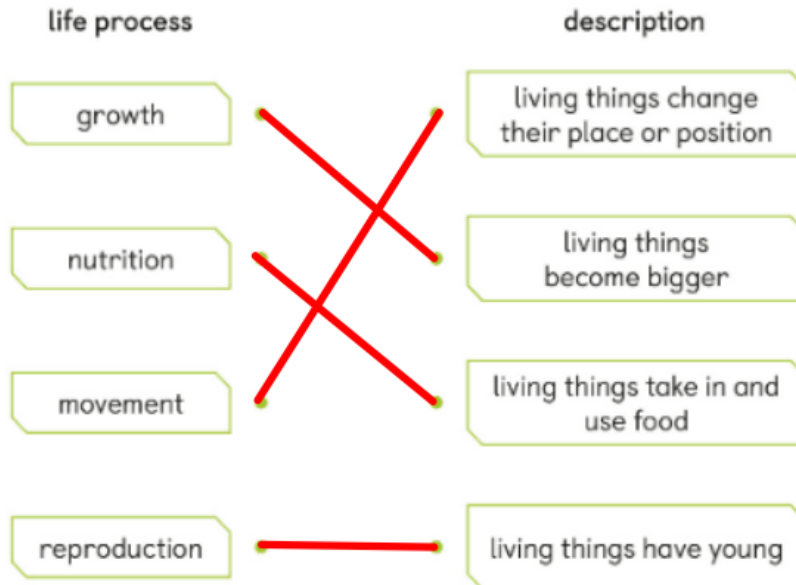

3. Jana is flying a kite on a windy day. The kite is moving. Jana says that the kite is not a living thing.

Which of the following tells you that the kite is not a living thing?
Tick (✓) the two correct answers.

- The kite can fly. ☐
- The kite cannot reproduce. ☒
- The kite does not need to eat. ☒
- The kite has different parts. ☐

4. Draw lines to match the life processes to the correct descriptions.

5. Write two observations that can help you to identify a living thing.

It grows
It moves on its own
It has young
It needs food