

Vocabulary part 2

grazing/steppes

While

When

Even though

After

1. grazing (v.) / Steppes (n.):

- While the cows were grazing in the steppes, they slowly moved toward the embankment to drink water.
- When the breeze blew, the goats enjoyed grazing in the cool steppes.
- Even though it was windy, the cows continued grazing.
- Before it got dark, the sheep finished grazing and returned to the barn.
- After the storm clouds moved away, the animals went back to grazing in the steppes.

clung

2. Clung (v.):

- As the storm raged, the children clung to their mother for safety.
- When the wind blew fiercely, the leaves clung to the branches.
- When the wave crashed, the children clung to the side of the boat.
- As soon as the fireworks started, the child clung to his mother's arm.
- As the wind blew hard, the kite clung to the top of the tree.
- Before the storm hit, the dog clung to its owner.

inched

As

When

When

Before

3. inched (v.):

- As the sun set, the turtle inched its way across the sandy shore.
- When the rain stopped, the worm inched its way out of the soil.
- While the wind blew softly, the balloon inched higher into the sky.
- When the sun peeked through the clouds, the flowers inched towards the light.
- Before the storm arrived, the raft inched closer to the embankment.

drenched

As / while

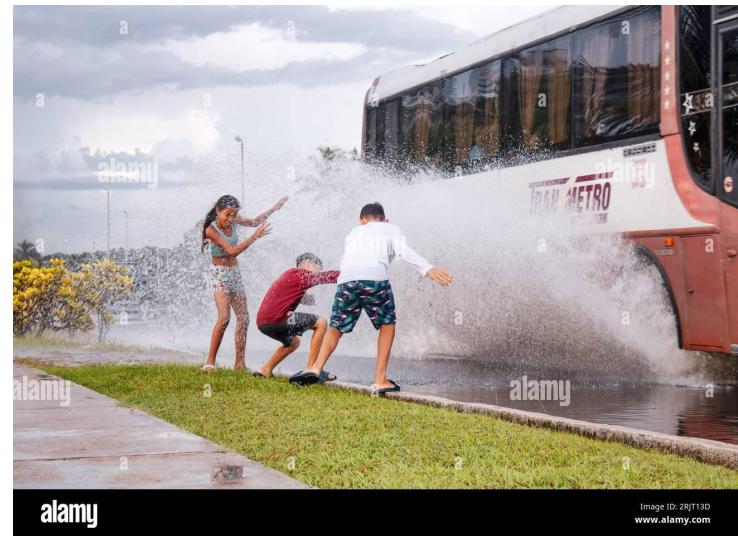

While

After

When

When

Image ID: 28J1130
www.alamy.com

4. drenched (v.):

- As the rain poured, the kids got drenched while they were playing outside.
- When the sprinklers turned on, the dog got completely drenched.
- While the kids were running through the puddles, their shoes became drenched.
- After the boat tipped over, everyone was drenched by the cold lake water.
- When the bus splashed through a puddle, the kids on the sidewalk were drenched.