

My favourite day in the cinema

Last Saturday, my family and I decided to go to the cinema to watch a funny new movie. We wanted to spend some special time together and enjoy the weekend. I felt happy and excited for our day out.

First, we got ready at home. I put on my favorite red T-shirt and helped my little brother to tie his shoes.

Next, once we arrived, the cinema was huge and spacious. We stopped at the tickets counter and bought our tickets. I couldn't wait to see the movie!

Next, we stopped at the snack shop and picked some fresh popcorn, cold drinks and sweet candy. Everything smelled so delicious.

After that, we found our comfortable seats and watched the funny movie. We laughed, smiled and had a great time together.

Finally, the movie ended and we walked home happily talking about our favorite parts.

I felt exhausted but extremely happy after the movie. It was an unforgettable day with my family!
