

Non-Fiction: Comprehension Practice 2

Get Crafty

Section One

You will need:

- a pencil
- a large plate
- paint
- a small plate
- card
- a paintbrush
- a chopstick
- a cup
- 5 • scissors
- modelling clay

Section Two

Steps:

1. Make five discs. To make the large disc, put the large plate on the card and draw a circle around it. To make the two
10 medium-sized discs, use the small plate and draw a circle around it. Do this again to make another circle. To make the two small discs, use the cup and draw a circle around it. Carefully, cut out each disc.
2. Paint the discs using orange or yellow paint - each circle can
15 be a different colour, if you like. Leave the discs until they are completely dry.

3. The designs on this spinning top are based on the artwork of the Aboriginal peoples of the Australian desert. Look at the examples of Aboriginal symbols on page 46. Paint one side
20 of each disc with a different Aboriginal symbol. When the paint is dry, turn the discs over and paint the same symbol on the other side.
4. Make a small hole in the middle of each disc.
5. Put the discs on the chopstick:
- 25 • First, put one of the small discs on the chopstick.
- Then, add one of the medium discs.
- Next, add the large disc.
- After that, add the second medium disc.
- Finally, add the other small disc.
- 30 6. When all five discs are on the chopstick, use the modelling clay to keep them apart and in place. Stand the top upright and spin it around.
