

Grammar

Question One: Sentence Types

- a. Complex
- b. Compound
- c. Simple
- d. Complex
- e. Complex
- f. Complex
- g. Complex
- h. Simple
- i. Compound

Question Two: Join the Sentences

- a. He didn't study, so he failed the test. (Compound)
- b. Olivia doesn't enjoy dinner parties, but she likes being with her friends. (Compound)
- c. She is very busy, yet she always helps her friends. (Compound)
- d. He missed the meeting because he forgot to set his alarm. (Complex)
- e. The children played quietly in the garden while their parents prepared dinner.
(Complex)
- f. She apologized immediately when she realized she had made a mistake. (Complex)

Question Three: Punctuation

- 1. After she finished her homework, she watched TV.
- 2. As I was walking down the street, I saw him driving a Ferrari.
- 3. She was tired so she decided to get some rest.
- 4. I went to the supermarket and bought some cheese, milk, salt, and sugar.

Question Four: Figurative Language

1. That party was a bomb. – Metaphor
2. The car brakes screamed all through the journey. – Personification
3. Carla closed her cluttered clothes closet. – Alliteration
4. My brother and I fight like cats and dogs all the time. – Simile
5. Go slow over the road. – Assonance

Question Five: Passive voice

1. They finished the project last week.

The project was finished last week.

2. The students help the teacher in class.

The teacher is helped in class by students.

3. I received five orders today.

Five orders were received today.

4. The manager checks his schedule every day.

His schedule was checked every day by the manager.

Question Six: Ordering adjectives.

1. She has a silk, lovely, long scarf.

She has a lovely long silk scarf.

2. They found a plastic, small, red toy.

They found a small red plastic toy.

3. He drew a round, big, strange face.

He drew a strange big round face.

4. She bought a French, small, cute bag.

She bought a cute small French bag.

5. They found an ancient, round, gold coin.

They found an ancient round gold coin.

6. He saw a brown, big, angry dog.

He saw an angry big brown dog.

Question Seven: Adverbs

1. gracefully
2. silently
3. gently
4. carefully
5. Fully
6. suddenly
7. Quickly
8. instinctively
9. calmly

Vocabulary

amenities	bias	purpose	excavate	eruption	sophisticated	gist
-----------	------	---------	----------	----------	---------------	------

1. Her opinion showed a clear bias toward her best friend.
2. Although the building is old, the amenities have been completely updated.
3. Since the article was long, she only focused on the gist to save time.
4. When you understand the purpose of the task, it becomes much easier to complete.
5. The software is sophisticated, yet it is surprisingly easy to use.
6. Before they could excavate the area, they needed permission from the government.
7. The eruption shook the entire region, and people rushed to evacuate the nearby villages.